

Setting up a New U3A - Covering Your Expenses

Each U3A will have expenses that must be covered. Your expenses may include but not be restricted to:

- Rental of premises where you hold your courses
- Public Liability & General Insurance - U3A groups may join the Network Insurance scheme.
This is encouraged but is not obligatory
- Purchase and maintenance of equipment
- Stationery, printing and postage for newsletters, programs and other publications
- Advertising
- Internet, including access and publishing a website
